MEDIA ADVISORY

AFRICA LIBERATION DAY 2026: CONTINENTAL DIALOGUE ON DIASPORA SYSTEMS IN ACCRA, GHANA

Journalists invited to cover major research initiative and community convening

WHAT: Africa Liberation Day 2026 Convening: State of the Africa Diaspora Report Exposure Draft Launch

WHEN: Monday, May 25, 2026

WHERE: Accra Marriott Hotel- Wesley Girls Ballroom | 8 AM - 12 PM

WHO:

- Office of the President, Special Envoy to the Caribbean
- Office of the President, Diaspora Affairs
- Black Star Resource & Repatriation Center
- Diaspora Africa Forum
- African Communications Agency
- She Grows It, Inc.
- The Adinkra Group
- Members of the Diplomatic Corps
- Diaspora Community Members

THE STORY:

For the first time, continental Africans are being asked: What do you need to grow your economy, develop your institutions, and build your systems? And once you understand that, which diaspora resources actually fit? This is not a diaspora recruitment event. This is a continental African systems assessment—novel, rigorous, and unprecedented in scale.
